

Prayers for My Marriage

Prayers to Pray Over my Husband:

Father, give my husband a discerning heart to know Your great love for him and the great plans You have for him and our family. Plans to prosper and not to harm, to give us hope and a future. (Jeremiah 29:11)

Father, give my husband the mind of Christ, saturate it with godly wisdom. Help him to recognize when a thought is not from you. Help him to take every thought captive that is not in obedience to Your Word, and in so doing protect him from pride and temptation. Keep his mind focused on what is true, noble, right, pure, lovely, excellent and praiseworthy. (1 Corinthians 2:16, 2 Corinthians 10:5, Philippians 4:8)

Father, open the eyes of my husband's heart to understand Your Word, so that he won't be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of his mind so that he may know Your good, acceptable and perfect will for his life and our marriage. (Romans 12:2)

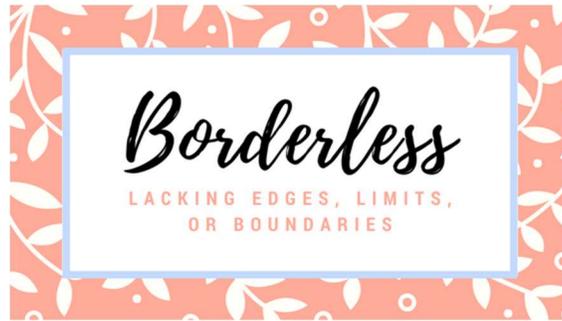

Father, help my husband to trust in You with all his heart, not depending on his own understanding, but acknowledging You in all his ways, so he knows what direction our family should take. (Proverbs 3:5-6)

Father, may the favor of the Lord rest on my husband. Bless and establish the work of his hands and his heart. (Psalm 90:17)

Father, give my husband wisdom as he seeks to honor You with our finances. I praise You for the blessings You've provided, and I pray that You would help him, help us, to always honor You first. (Hebrews 13:5)

Father, keep my husband's words pure before You. I pray that he would use his words just as You would have him to. I praise You for his personality and pray for purposeful conversations in our marriage. (Ephesians 4:29)

Father, I pray that You would provide encouraging friendships for my husband. That he would know he is never alone because You are with him, but I ask for others to speak into his life and sharpen him as he sharpens them. (Proverbs 27:17)

Prayers to Pray Over Myself:

Father, Your word says a wife is a good gift from you. I want to be an excellent wife to my husband, one who consistently brings him honor, so I pray you would guide my actions, so that I will bring him good and not harm all the days of my life. (Proverbs 18:22, Proverbs 12:4, Proverbs 31:12)

Father, You know every one of my weaknesses and how they are impacting my role as a helpmate. Lead me to recognize the ungodliness hiding in my will, my expectations, and how I express my emotions. Show me where I am investing my attention in things that will deteriorate my relationship with my husband. (2 Corinthians 12:9-10, Luke 12:2, 2 Corinthians 4:18)

Father, let the power of Your Word transform my motives. Coach me relentlessly to be a wife who respects her husband in word and deed. Cause Your tenderness, gentleness, kindness, and humility to become my own (Romans 12:2, Ephesians 5:22-24, Colossians 3:12).

Father, use me to create a peaceful home for my husband. Use me to encourage him, bear his burdens, and reflect Your extravagant love for him. (Philippians 4:11-12, 2 Thessalonians 3:16, Galatians 6:2, Ephesians 3:18-19).
